

TRB Standing Committee on Women and Gender in Transportation (AME20)

WEBINAR SERIES

FINDINGS FROM MAINSTREAMING GENDER DATA

This webinar will demonstrate the importance of collecting and analyzing gender data to achieve greater mobility, health, and quality of life for women and LGBTQ people.

Co-Sponsored by TRB Standing Committees:
Traveler Behavior and Values Committee (AEP30)
Behavioral Processes Subcommittee AEP30(4)

WEDNESDAY

November

18

12 Noon – 1:30 p.m.
Eastern

Register online: <https://nasem.zoom.us/j/93397689829>

For more information: Contact Sheila Mitra-Sarkar (Webinars@futuretrans.org)

Moderator: Sheila Mitra Sarkar, Research Fellow, IPUA, San Diego State University

Speakers:

Data Collection in Europe

Floridea Di Ciommo, cambiaMO|changing MObility, Madrid, Spain

Visible Invisible Oppression: Harassment faced by Gender Minorities

Ellis Rose, LGBTQ Community Advocate
San Diego Regional Continuum of Care Council

Global Study on Sexual Harassment faced by Women Transit Riders

Anastasia Loukaitou, Professor, UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs

COVID-19 and Gender Data Collection: Quarantine Diary Captures Experience of Living in an RV (Six Minute Documentary)

Yesica Prado, Photo Journalist

The Mobility of Care-givers and Essential Women Workers Pre- and Post-COVID

Lucia Mejia-Dorantes, Independent Policy Researcher

Join the TRB Women and Gender in Transportation Committee for a webinar series that highlights the intersection of women and gender-related topics with other transportation topics.

